The contents of the report are ordered according to the following sections:

TITLE PAGE
ABSTRACT
DECLARATION
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT
TABLE OF CONTENTS
LIST OF TABLES
LIST OF FIGURES
BODY OF THE REPORT
REFERENCES
APPENDICES (if any)

Front Page – Cover page

This page must contain University name, project title, student name and ID, Supervisor's name, department name and year submitted.

Page i – Title page

This page contains project title, student's name, supervisor's name,

Page ii – Abstract

This page contains the synopsis of the report. Its length is normally between 150 and 250 words (should not be more than one page). It must contain the following information:

- (i) The aims and objectives of the research project
- (ii) New findings such as improved solutions, invention, new theory, interpretation or accurate reevaluation of old ideas or concepts.

Somebody unfamiliar with your project should have a good idea of what it's about having read the abstract alone and will know whether it will be of interest to them.

Page iii – Declaration of Submission of Report

This page contains the signed declaration from the student on the authenticity of the report. It must be typed at the center of the body of a new page immediately after the title page. The wordings of the declaration should conform to the required standard format.

Page iv– Acknowledgments

Any form of special professional assistance that is extended or granted by an individual or organization in the preparation of the report is recorded on this page. It should not exceed one (1) page and must be typed at the centre of the page.

This page serves as a guide to the contents of the text. Every heading and subheading within the text should be listed verbatim in the Table of Contents.
